

THE CARNIVAL BAND

“Henry VII’s Rock and Roll band” presents music that goes

“Around the World in 80 Days”

The Carnival Band should be bottled and made Glorious Chaos

Freely available on the NHS - Nott’s Eve Post-Hereford Times

Spontaneous and exuberant, The Carnival Band turns musical convention on its head from Renaissance to Rock ‘n’ Roll. Two leading talents in the UK early music scene, an ex LSO violinist turned drummer, a rock guitarist and a dynamic bassist take a sideways look at music from all over the world and from a host of styles and periods. Over 20 instruments and full vocal harmony. Recordings and tours with folk diva Maddy Prior have won them an enthusiastic following. Witty and unpredictable, they’ll bring out the reveller in you!
